

Research Title Formulas and Key Rules for Title Approval

Guidance for Clear, Impactful, and Approved Research Titles

MJ AQUINO,
PROFESSOR
MIT

Why Research Titles Matter

Your title is the first impression of your research

Clarity helps your audience understand your focus

Specificity sets your work apart

Relevance connects your study to real-world impact

Formula 1 - Action-Driven Titles

THE

[Action / Objective] + [System Name / Type] + using + [Tech Stack / Approach] + for + [Target Client / Beneficiary]

WHEN TO

USE
Best for building complete systems to solve specific problems

EXAMPLE

A
Development of an
Automated Inventory Management System
using
Barcode Scanning Technology
for Barangay San Antonio
Health Center

EXAMPLE

B
Implementation of a
Web-Based Student Evaluation System
using
Machine Learning Sentiment Analysis
for Saint Michael College

Formula 2 - Technology-Driven Titles

[Proposed Technology / Method] + for + [Specific Problem /
Domain] + in + [Target Context]

Best for technical innovations, algorithms, or specialized architectures.

EXAMPLE

A

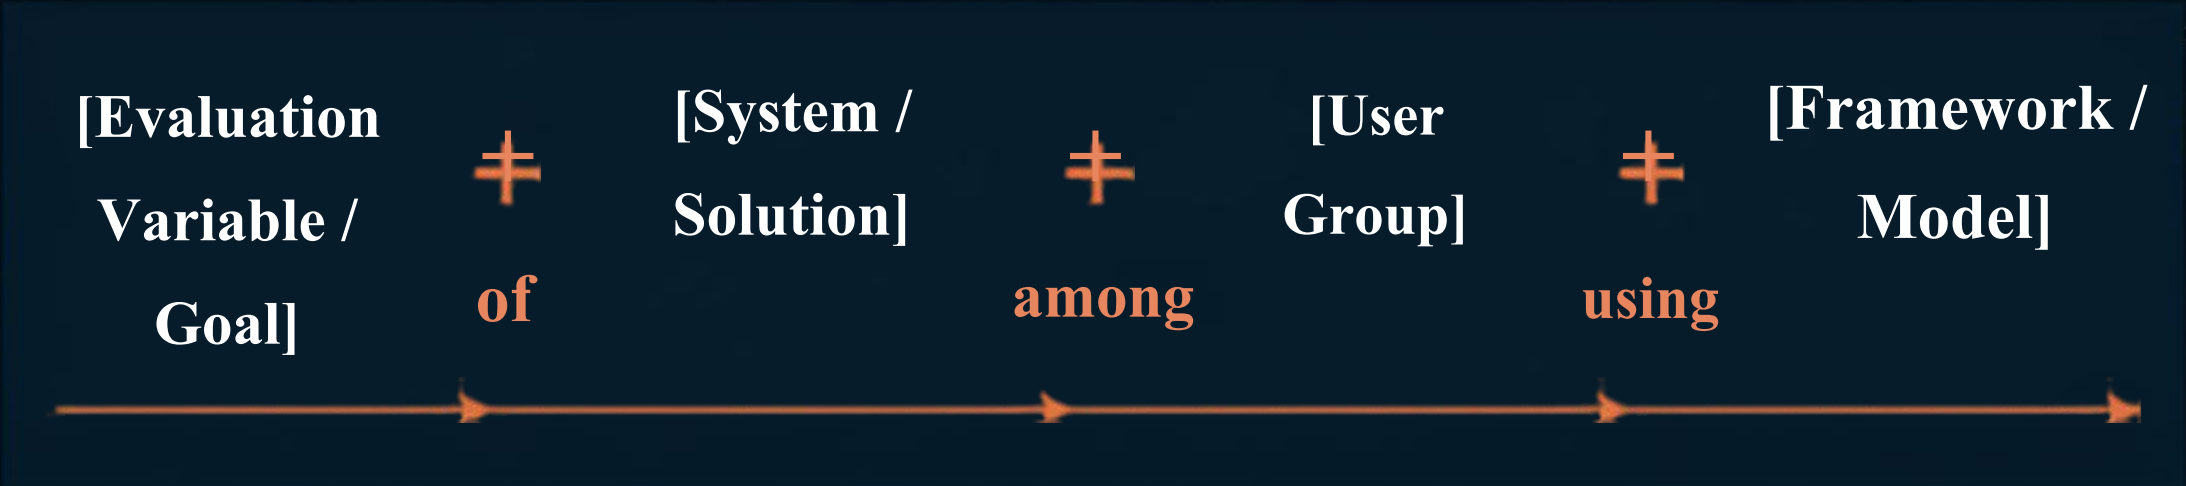

A Convolutional Neural Network
Approach for Early Rice Leaf Blight
Detection in Agricultural Barangays of Laguna

EXAMPLE

B

An Offline-First SQLite Synchronization
Model for Mobile Health Information
Systems in Remote Municipalities

Formula 3 - Assessment / Evaluation-Driven Titles

User Acceptance Assessment of the LGU Citizen Portal among Senior Citizens using the Technology Acceptance Model (TAM)

Usability Evaluation of the Online Document Tracking System of Biñan City Hall using ISO/IEC 25010 Quality Model

Key Rules for Title Approval

1

Avoid vague modifiers

eliminating unmeasurable, ambiguous, or poorly placed descriptive words (adjectives and adverbs) that leave room for guesswork.

2

Be specific about technology

Name the exact technology, framework, or platform.

3

Include client or location

Specify the LGU, school, company, or target demographic.

4

Keep it concise

Stay under 15–20 words while covering essentials.

Thank
You

